Headteacher - Rachel Neville

7th February 2025

Dear Parents and Carers,

We are delighted to announce that we have found an outstanding Head Teacher for Frogwell Primary School.

Imogen Woods is a current Head Teacher who has vast experience, and has successfully led her current school from 'Requires Improvement' (RI) through to 'Good', and has also been selected to support schools in 'Special Measures' with notable impact.

We are pleased to know that Imogen worked as a class teacher for 17 years then, over the past 11 years has been a Head Teacher and when her own school was in a position of strength, supported a London school (and her own) as Executive Head Teacher. She has worked in small schools as well as larger ones, in village, urban and inner-city London settings. We are confident that she will take us all on the rest of our journey from RI to 'Good' and beyond.

As a serving Head Teacher, Imogen has to give her current school significant notice, and will join us at the start of September. As our current Head Teacher Rachel Neville is leaving in April, we have already begun the search for an interim Head but it will take time to make the interim appointment. We will advise you as soon as we can.

We are deeply grateful to Rachel Neville for her great service, not just as our Head Teacher, but over the 17 years she has been part of the staff team. We thank you for your forbearance in this time of change, and we are excited about the next chapter in the life of Frogwell School under Imogen Wood's leadership.

Warmly,

Nigel Linacre BEM
Chair of the Board
