

ENGLISH

-Read and discuss Kensuke's Kingdom by Michael Morpurgo

-Write non-fiction piece about orang-utans linked to Kensuke's Kingdom

-Write a story based on 'Gorilla' Anthony Browne.

-Spelling and Punctuation – 10 new words per week punctuation, word classes, clauses and phrases.

ART- The Great Wave off Kanagawa

How does Hokusai represent the ocean?

-How can I use relief printing to represent the ocean?

- How does Anne Ryan use sculpture to create movement?

-How can we work collaboratively to create a

HISTORY – Were the Vikings raiders, traders or something else?

When and why did the Vikings come to Britain?

How do we know about the Vikings?

What happened when the Vikings arrived in Britain?

Were the Vikings raiders, traders or settlers?

MATHS

- Place Value up to 1,000,000
- Addition and Subtraction
- Multiplication and Division
- Regular arithmetic practice
- Regular times tables practice

Read at home!

Year 5 Term 1 Curriculum Map

RELIGION and WORLDVIEWS

Judaism: How does remembering maintain Jewish identity?

MUSIC - What shall we do with a Drunken Sailor?

-Learn about sea shanties and learn to sing and perform 'What shall we do with a drunken sailor?'

-create and perform body percussion and cup percussions to sea shanties.

SCIENCE- Friction and forces

- Why do objects fall towards the Earth, and why they speed up as they fall?

How does air resistance, water resistance and friction affect how things move?

How we can change the effects of friction to make movement easier or harder?

How can levers, pulleys and gears help us move or lift things using less force?

COMPUTING

Systems and networks

Internet addresses

Data pockets

Communicating responsibly

Managing online information

PSHE – Me and My relationships

- School Code
- Working together
- Solve the friendship problem
- Behave yourself
- Assertive skills
- Acting appropriately

P.E (Mondays and Tuesdays)

- Tag Rugby (with in2sport coach)
- Chance2Shine Cricket

FRENCH

- 'Je me présente' - we'll learn how to present and talk about ourselves in French.